Outdated Business Systems Cripple Operations. Is It Time for a Change?

YOUR BUSINESS HAS OUTGROWN YOUR ACCOUNTING SOFTWARE IF:

- Systems are disconnected and information is stored in different places.
- Manual processes result in duplicate entry and errors.
- Tracking occurs in spreadsheets, not your financial system.
- Lack of workflows and audit trails puts your business at risk

Benefit Instantly from Technology that
Frees You to Do More

Are You Suffering from Disconnected Systems?

Are you managing your business with spreadsheets?

That's a tell-tale sign you should upgrade to a comprehensive ERP.

Are customers getting answers with their first call or email?

If not, upgrade to a modern integrated system with full visibility.

Are you still running a paper-driven office?

Watch productivity soar with a paperless approach.

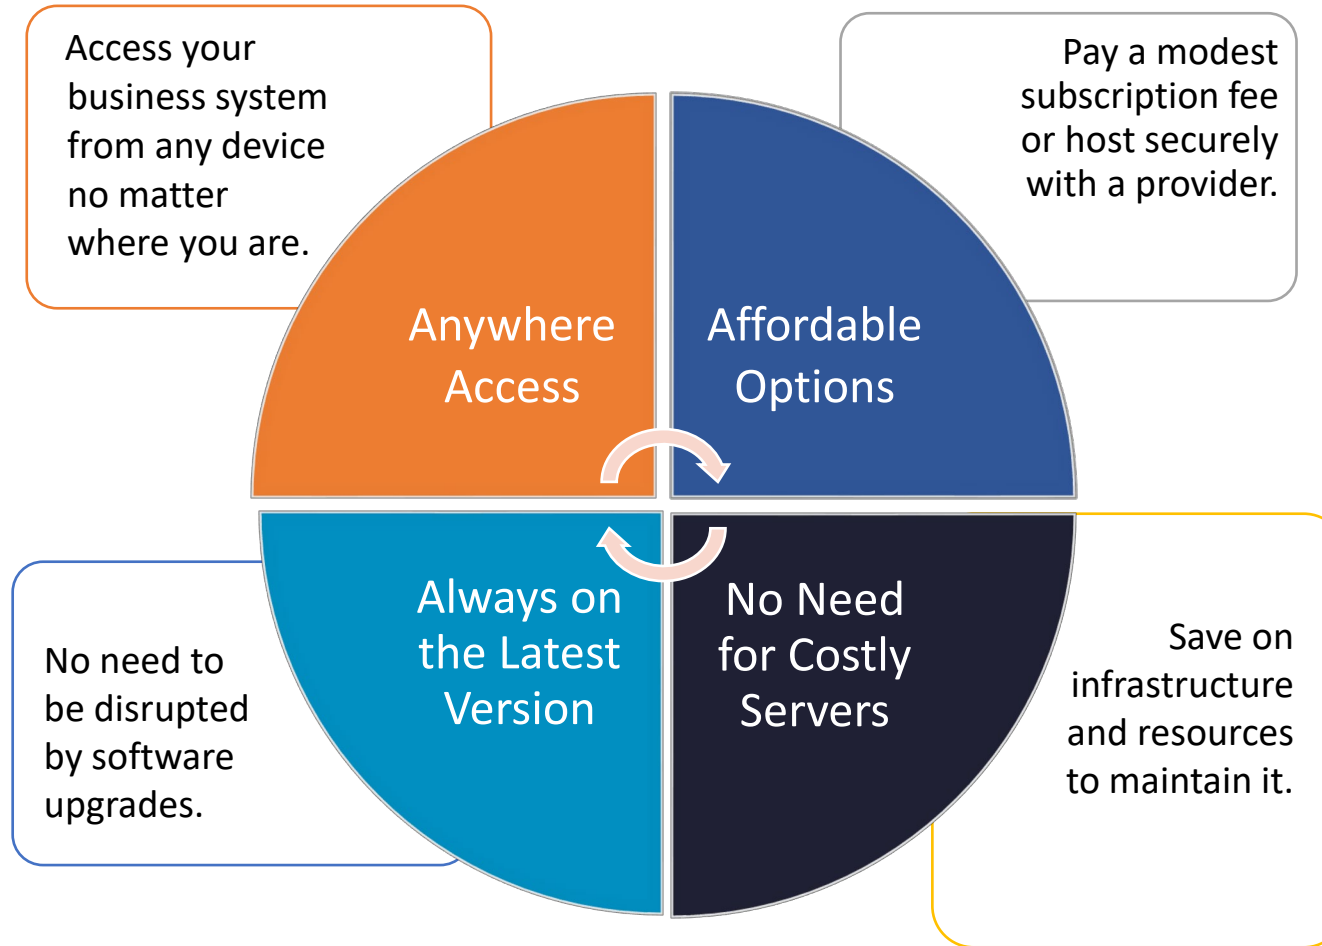

*One Connected
ERP System for Everything You Do*

It's Not Magic, It's Modern Technology

Simplify your processes with advanced functionality:

- Automatic Inventory replenishment suggestions based on demand
- Get answers instantly by drilling down to view related documents
- Know what is available-to-promise at all times

BMI Recommends Cloud ERP to Accelerate Business

What Will a Connected Business System Do for You?

Go from quote to cash without leaving your inbox. Easily export data to Excel and create outgoing documents directly in Word.

Automate and secure business processes with easy-to-create workflows and audit trails.

Get a complete picture of your business and make informed decisions with powerful reporting and custom dashboards.

Everybody Works From A Centralized System

Imagine this:

John in customer service receives an email to order 50 widgets for ABC company. Without leaving his inbox he can initiate a sales order from the email that instantly updates the widget inventory on-order count.

Sue in purchasing runs her integrated replenishment tool and sees that John's order depleted the widgets available and quickly places an order to keep the right number of widgets in stock. (Not too much, not too little)
